

CAPE RUBY

ABOUT THIS WINE

The Swartland is historically a port-style wine producing area with heritage that spans many generations. Our Cape Ruby uses traditional Port varietal, Touriga Nacional with a splash of Shiraz for a vibrant, Swartland twist that adds complexity and a hint of spice.

WINE OF ORIGIN SWARTLAND

VINIFICATION WINEMAKER'S NOTE

After cold-soaking the grapes, fermentation is temperature-controlled with regular pump overs for maximum extraction. The fermentation is stopped at 11 degrees balling and fortified with brandy spirits. The wine is then back-blended with wine from older vintages for continuity of flavour and to add complexity. It is then matured in older French oak barrels for 12 -18 months before being bottled.

TASTING NOTE

Youthful and lively with rich dark fruit, a hint of spice and a lingering finish.
